Conference Topics

Ethical Use of AI in Education and Research: Exploring the ethical implications of integrating artificial intelligence in educational settings and research practices.

Publication Ethics: Addressing the challenges and best practices in maintaining integrity in academic publishing.

Research Security: Focusing on safeguarding scientific activities against misuse and undue influence, ensuring the protection of intellectual property and sensitive data.

Industrialization of Misconduct: Examining the rise of systematic fraudulent practices such as essay and paper mills and predatory journals, and their impact on scientific integrity.

Policy Development: Discussing the development and implementation of effective policies to promote and uphold ethical standards in academic and research environments.

Equity and Diversity in Academic Integrity, Research Integrity, and Research Ethics: Emphasizing the importance of fostering inclusive academic environments, promoting diversity, and ensuring equitable opportunities for all participants. Our conference aims to foster a collaborative environment that promotes the exchange of ideas and the development of new strategies to enhance ethics and integrity in academia. We are committed to diversity and inclusivity, ensuring that our program reflects a wide range of perspectives and experiences.

Welcome Message

conference chair

Dear Colleagues,

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the European Conference on Ethics and Integrity in Academia 2025 (ECEIA), hosted by ENAI and the Uppsala University.

From 16–19 July 2025, we will gather in the historic city of Uppsala to share insights, foster collaboration, and advance ethics and integrity in academia. This year's conference highlights the importance of creating a more transparent, inclusive, and ethical academic landscape.

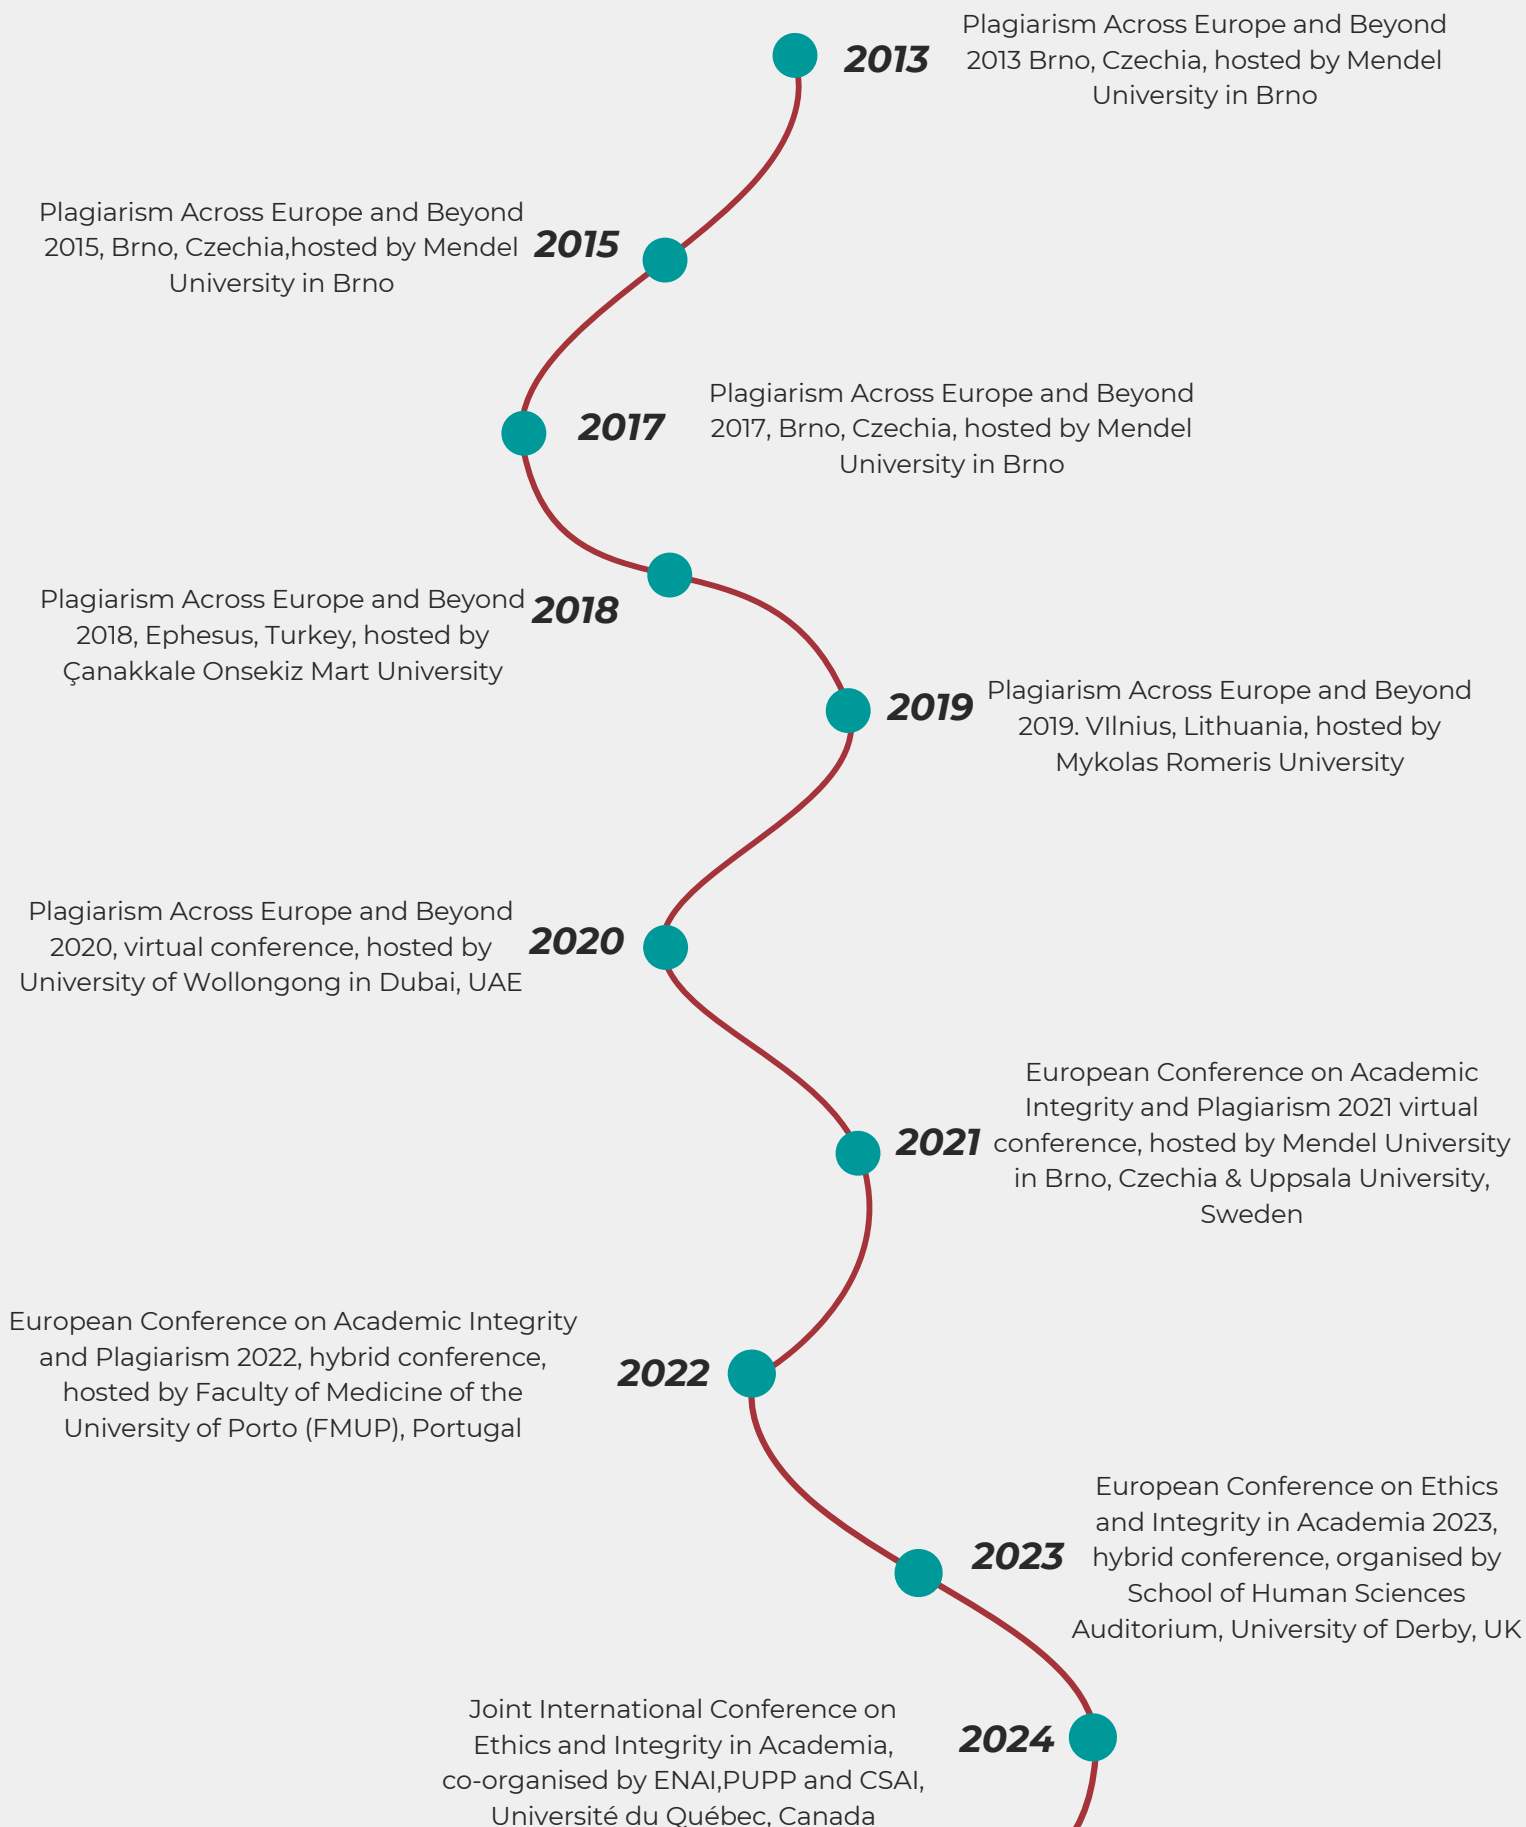

For sponsors, this event offers a unique opportunity to engage with a global community dedicated to upholding the values of education and research.

I look forward to welcoming you to Uppsala for an inspiring and impactful event.

Warm regards,

Sonja BjeLOBABA

History of the ENAI conferences

About the Uppsala University

We are thrilled to announce that the European Conference on Ethics and Integrity in Academia 2025 will be hosted at Uppsala University, a prestigious institution with a history that spans nearly 550 years. Founded in 1477, Uppsala University is not only the oldest university in Sweden but also a globally recognized hub of academic excellence, innovation, and societal impact.

The conference will be held in the university's Main Building, a historic landmark that stands as a symbol of learning, tradition, and progress. Constructed in the 1880s, this grand venue is located in the heart of Uppsala and features magnificent lecture halls, elegant meeting spaces, and state-of-the-art facilities, all within a setting that reflects the rich heritage of academic integrity.

Nestled in the charming city of Uppsala, just a short distance from Stockholm, the university offers a unique atmosphere.

Attendees will have the opportunity to experience not only the inspiring discussions of the conference but also the culture and history of one of Europe's most iconic university towns.
